a part of our attention to training students in research and evaluation procedures Ensure students are aware of their rights and how to use them and where to pursue complaints. This includes providing information on the student's right to be accompanied by a friend or support person during the hearing process. The University will not be held responsible for any actions taken by students or staff in a student's room or on campus unless the University has been notified in writing.

The University will not:

Carry out disciplinary actions or investigations or disciplinary actions in response to a report of sexual assault or sexual harassment. However, the University may require a student to attend a hearing or disciplinary hearing if the student is found to be responsible for the incident. The University will not be held responsible for any actions taken by students or staff in a student's room or on campus unless the University has been notified in writing.
 Act in a way that is not in the best interests of the student or the University.
 Carry out disciplinary actions or investigations or disciplinary actions in response to a report of sexual assault or sexual harassment.
 The University will not be held responsible for any actions taken by students or staff in a student's room or on campus unless the University has been notified in writing.
